

Move Low Under Smoke

In a fire, move low under smoke to breathe the cleaner air.

If a child is not able to crawl, try one of these options:

Option 1: Blanket Drag

Option 2: Scooter Board

© Community Education and Child Advocacy Department,
Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, Indiana
Riley Hospital for Children is a Clarian Health Partner

Working together. Making a difference for kids.

Poster development supported by the International Association of Fire Fighters
Poster designed by the Office of Visual Media, Indiana University School of Medicine

Practice a family fire escape plan regularly.